The Coaching Authority Celebrates Its 10 Year Anniversary

Company marks 10 years of quality and excellent service in business growth and leadership development

Granger, Indiana - Coaching Authority is proud to announce its 10th year as a leading provider of executive coaching and strategic planning solutions. A decade of experience has transformed The Coaching Authority from a new business entity with big dreams into a successful company that leading business corporations rely on for solutions to improve their business operations and outcomes.

Owner and founder of The Coaching Authority Patrick Frazier, has worked with over 75 clients, and over 1000 individuals in the past 10 years. He joins 50 other coaches worldwide who have earned certification status from Gazelles International, a premier international executive education and coaching association. He holds certifications with Resource Associates Corporation, Total Quality Institute, and America's Rising Stars.

As President of The Coaching Authority, Patrick Frazier brings over 25 years of experience in project leadership, process development, and team building. Patrick is known for measurable results by providing clients with personalized processes and support materials to help turn their goals into reality.

Over the past 10 years, The Coaching Authority has built a reputation as an industry leader in helping companies increase organizational efficiency, build market share and build top-line sales revenue.

The Coaching Authority's unique method of business coaching has a three-pronged approach including strategic planning, process improvement, and talent development. This approach embodies goal achievement and innovation with significant gains toward productivity, team performance and cost reduction. The Coaching Authority looks forward to helping more organizations succeed in the near future as they expand to other cities.

We would like to thank our partners and clients for the success that The Coaching Authority has achieved in the past 10 years. Our clients' success is the only true measure of our success. Looking ahead, the future of The Coaching Authority is without limits.
